

Armie of Parliament

First Army for England

Job description

Sergeant Major General (Army 2ic) to the Armie of Parliament

Command & Control

This is a primary Command function and a primary Control function. Reporting to the Army Commander (Lord General).

Span of Command

Command of the entire Army and all subordinate commanders. Particularly in the absence or incapacitation of the Army Commander (Lord General).

Specific Areas of Responsibility

On Battle & Pre Battle

- Maintain the Order of Battle
- Direct the Order of March
- Command of multiple formations as the Tactical situation demands and at the direction of the Army Commander i.e.
 - Wings
 - Battle Groups
 - Van
 - Rear Guard
 - Main Body
 - Kampfgruppe
 - Battalia
 - Reserves
 - Point of decision.
- Instrumental in the Implementation the battle plan/plan of attack
- Make decisive tactical judgements, using own initiative, to carry out the battle plan to achieve victory
- Make on the spot decisions to alter the battle plan due to current tactical situation, implement and inform Army Commander of new circumstances

At Event

- Command Army Parades
- Instrumental in the creation of the plan of attack.
- Conduct any necessary briefings
- Assessment of terrain and key features

Pre Event

- Write Battle Plans (not scripts) for Major Events
- Plan Army Parades
- Ensure integrity of command structure

Armie of Parliament

First Army for England

Job description

Sergeant Major General (Army 2ic) to the Armie of Parliament

Management

Make judgements on Army disciplinary matters referred to the LG & SMG by the Army Judge Advocate.

Strategic

- Identification of Policy needs
- Lead development of Policy
- Key role in implementing policy
- Development of the Officer Corp and talent
- Development of Tactical doctrine
- Development of Weapon skills
- Development of Equipment
 - Polearms
 - Colours & Standards
 - Dress & Uniforms
 - Shot
 - In conjunction with the Master Gunner and Cavalry Commander their Arms.
- Development of Drum Corps
- Development of Drill
- Development of Manoeuvre