From our towne of Whitneye, Oxfordshire.
BY ORDER of Lord Generall Paul Eaglestone

THE LORD GENERALL

n this brief issue you will find a copy of the agenda for the Armie of Parliament meeting to be held at the Army Council as well as the script for the Blenheim muster. Thus you are fully armed for the meeting.

Can you please ensure that your unit is represented at the Army Council. The cynics amongst us will ask "Is it worth it?" Well yes it is if you want to know what is going on, and even better have a say in development. See you there,

PAUL EAGLESTONE

THE BATTLE OF WOODSTOCK 1643

THE BATTLE IS FICTITIOUS BUT BASED UPON HISTORIC FACT. THE YEAR IS 1643 AND A PARLIAMENT CAMP HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED IN THE GROUNDS OF WOODSTOCK MANOR AS PART OF THE EARL OF ESSEX'S ADVANCE TOWARDS OXFORD. THIS CAMP IS ATTACKED BY ROYALIST FORCES FROM THE CITY OF OXFORD.
